PUBLIC DEPARTMENT.

NOTIFICATION.

Fort St. George, December 21, 1910.

The following order of the Government of Bombay is republished:—

GENERAL DEPARTMENT.

1125 November 1910.

No. 1418.—The Haj Committee of Bombay, which consists of a number of Mohammedan gentlemen of the City, have recently brought to the notice of the Government of Bombay that large numbers of pilgrims start on their journey to Mecca with money just sufficient to enable them to reach that place, leaving to strain inefficient shabby clothes for the return journey. On their return many reach Bombay, but have no money to meet the expense of the further journey to their homes in the interior of India or elsewhere. The Committee recommended that the pilgrims should be expected either to purchase return railway tickets or to depend upon the Consulate of Turkey, Bombay, which was asked to advise the return railway fare pilgrims substantiate. The Consulate in question is in partial sympathy with the object of this recommendation upon the adoption of either of the courses suggested would prevent much avoidable suffering to returning Hajis.

The Consulate in question, however, that intending pilgrims may well be reminded of the promise of the Koran on the subject, more especially of those which required that sufficient provisions should be made for the journey. He accordingly desires to draw the attention of all Mohammedans to the following extracts from the Koran and other authoritative works dealing with the Haj so that all may understand what the great teachers of Islam have laid down:—

1. Koran, Chapter II, (Sole) lays down: "Make provision for your journey, but the best provision is piety, and fear me, O ye, of understanding." The reason for this verse is given in Sahih Bukhari, Volume IV, Chapter 10th, and in Tafsir Jib. VII, Makin, Volume II, to the following effect:—

The use of Allah were that the people of Yaman used to go to the Haj without providing sufficient food for their journey, declaring that they placed reliance upon God, and after reaching Mecca used to beg. Therefore God sent down this verse (from heaven).

2. Koran, Chapter III, (Sole): "And it is a duty towards God (assuredly) on those who are able to go thither to visit His house." Tafsir in Sahih's translation: "According to an opinion of this passage attributed to Mohammed, he is supposed to be able to perform the pilgrimages who can supply himself with provisions for the journey and a beast to ride upon. Al-Shah has decided that those who have money enough, if they cannot perform them, must find some other to go in their name. Sheikh Abu Aun thinks he is to be reckoned able who is strong and healthy, and can bear the fatigue of the journey as best, if he has no horse to ride, and one who can bear him being by the way. But Abu Hanifa is of opinion that both money sufficient and health of body are requisite to make the pilgrimages a duty."
